THAT PRODUCES ACTION

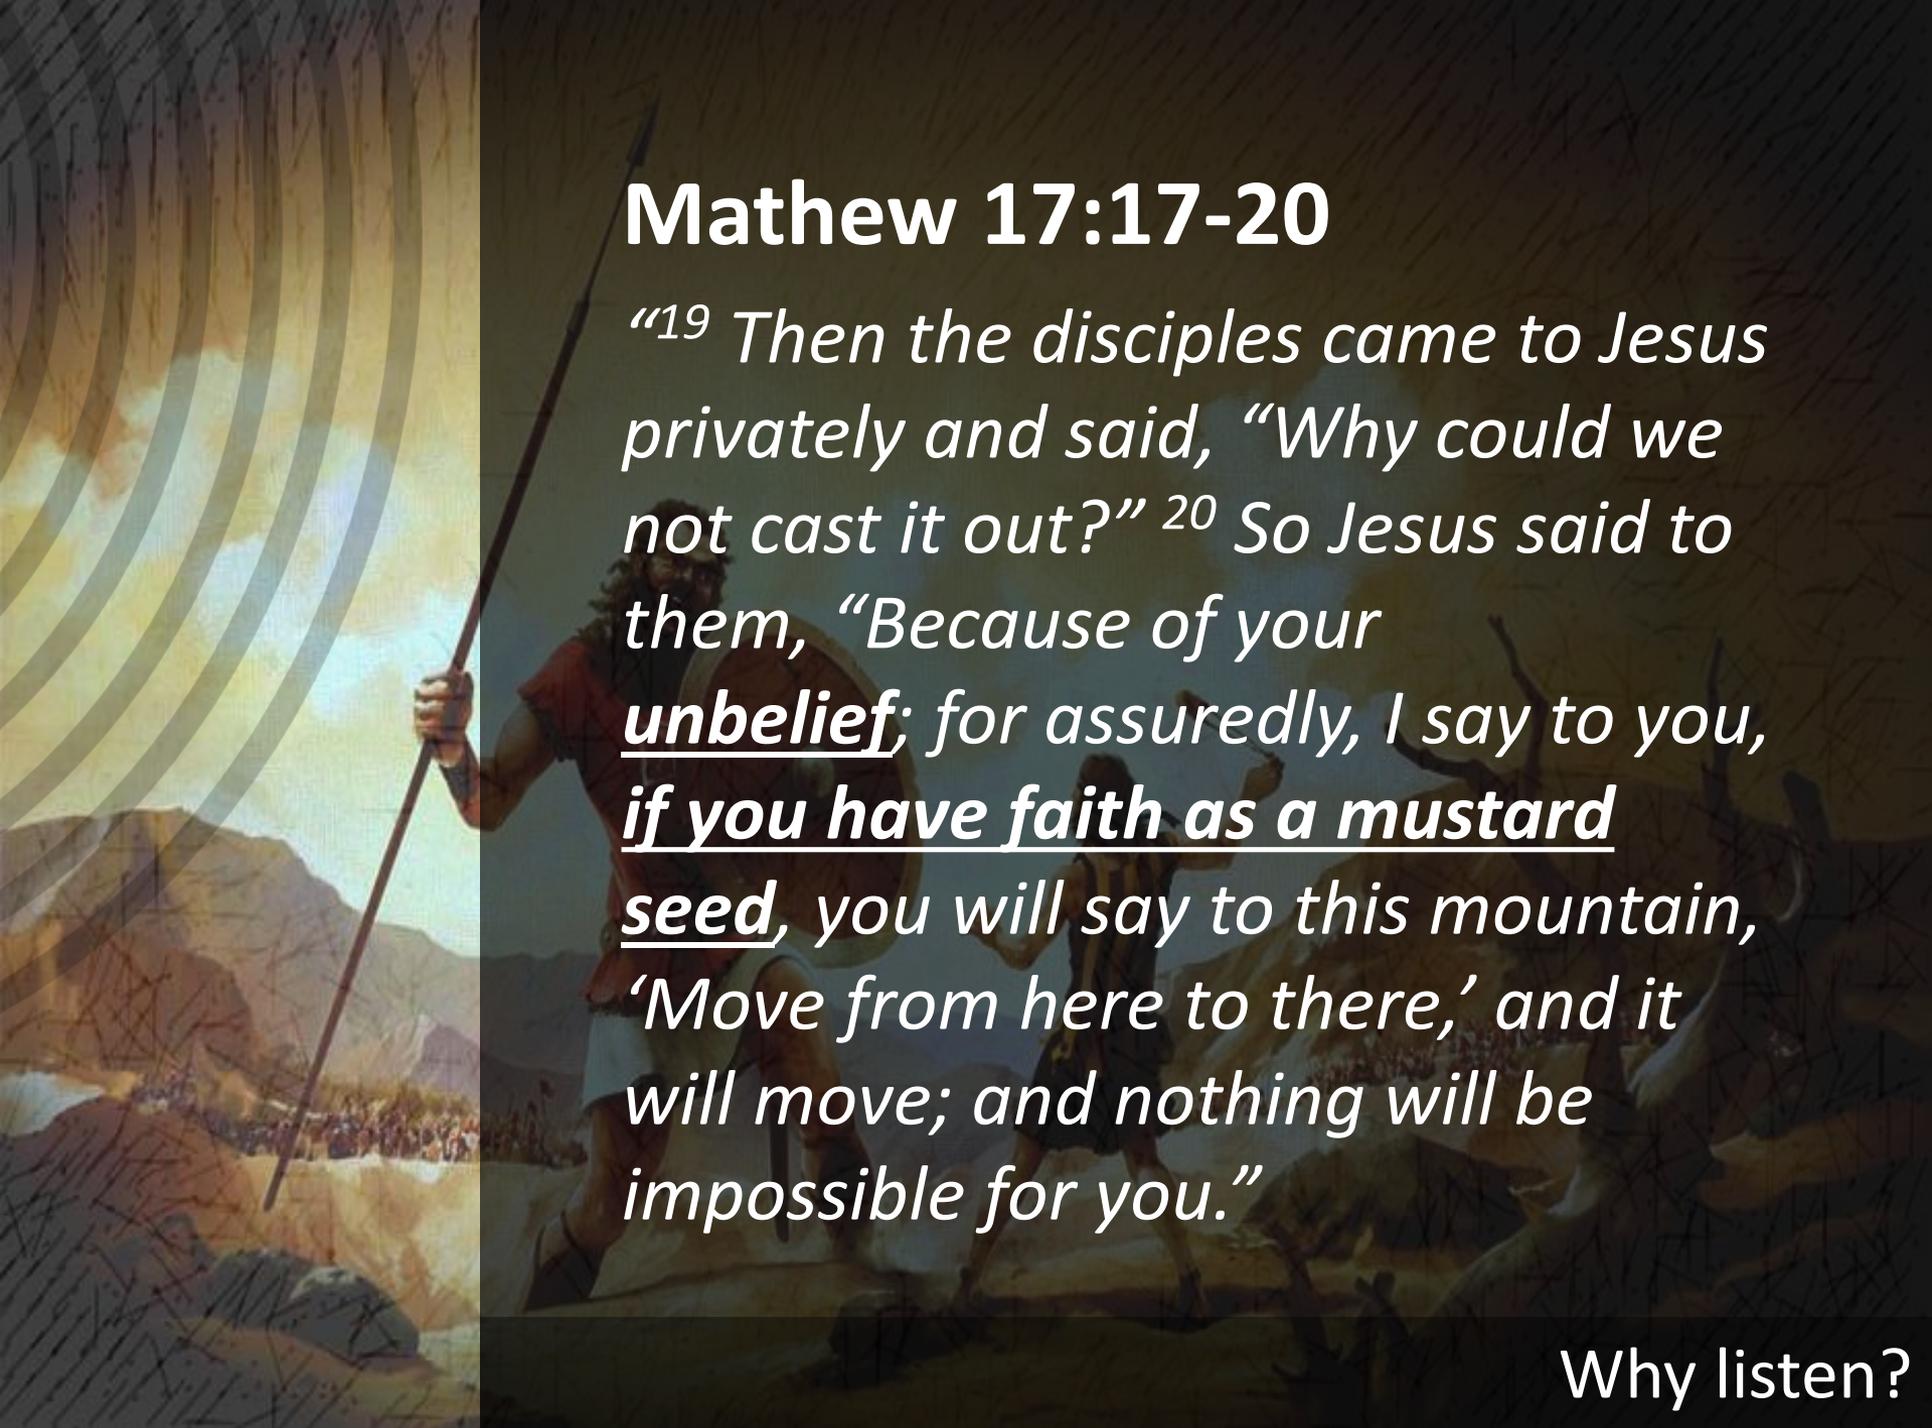

Mathew 17:17-20

“¹⁷ Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to Me.” ¹⁸ And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him; and the child was cured from that very hour.

Mathew 17:17-20

“¹⁹ Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why could we not cast it out?” ²⁰ So Jesus said to them, “Because of your unbelief; for assuredly, I say to you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.””

What is faith?

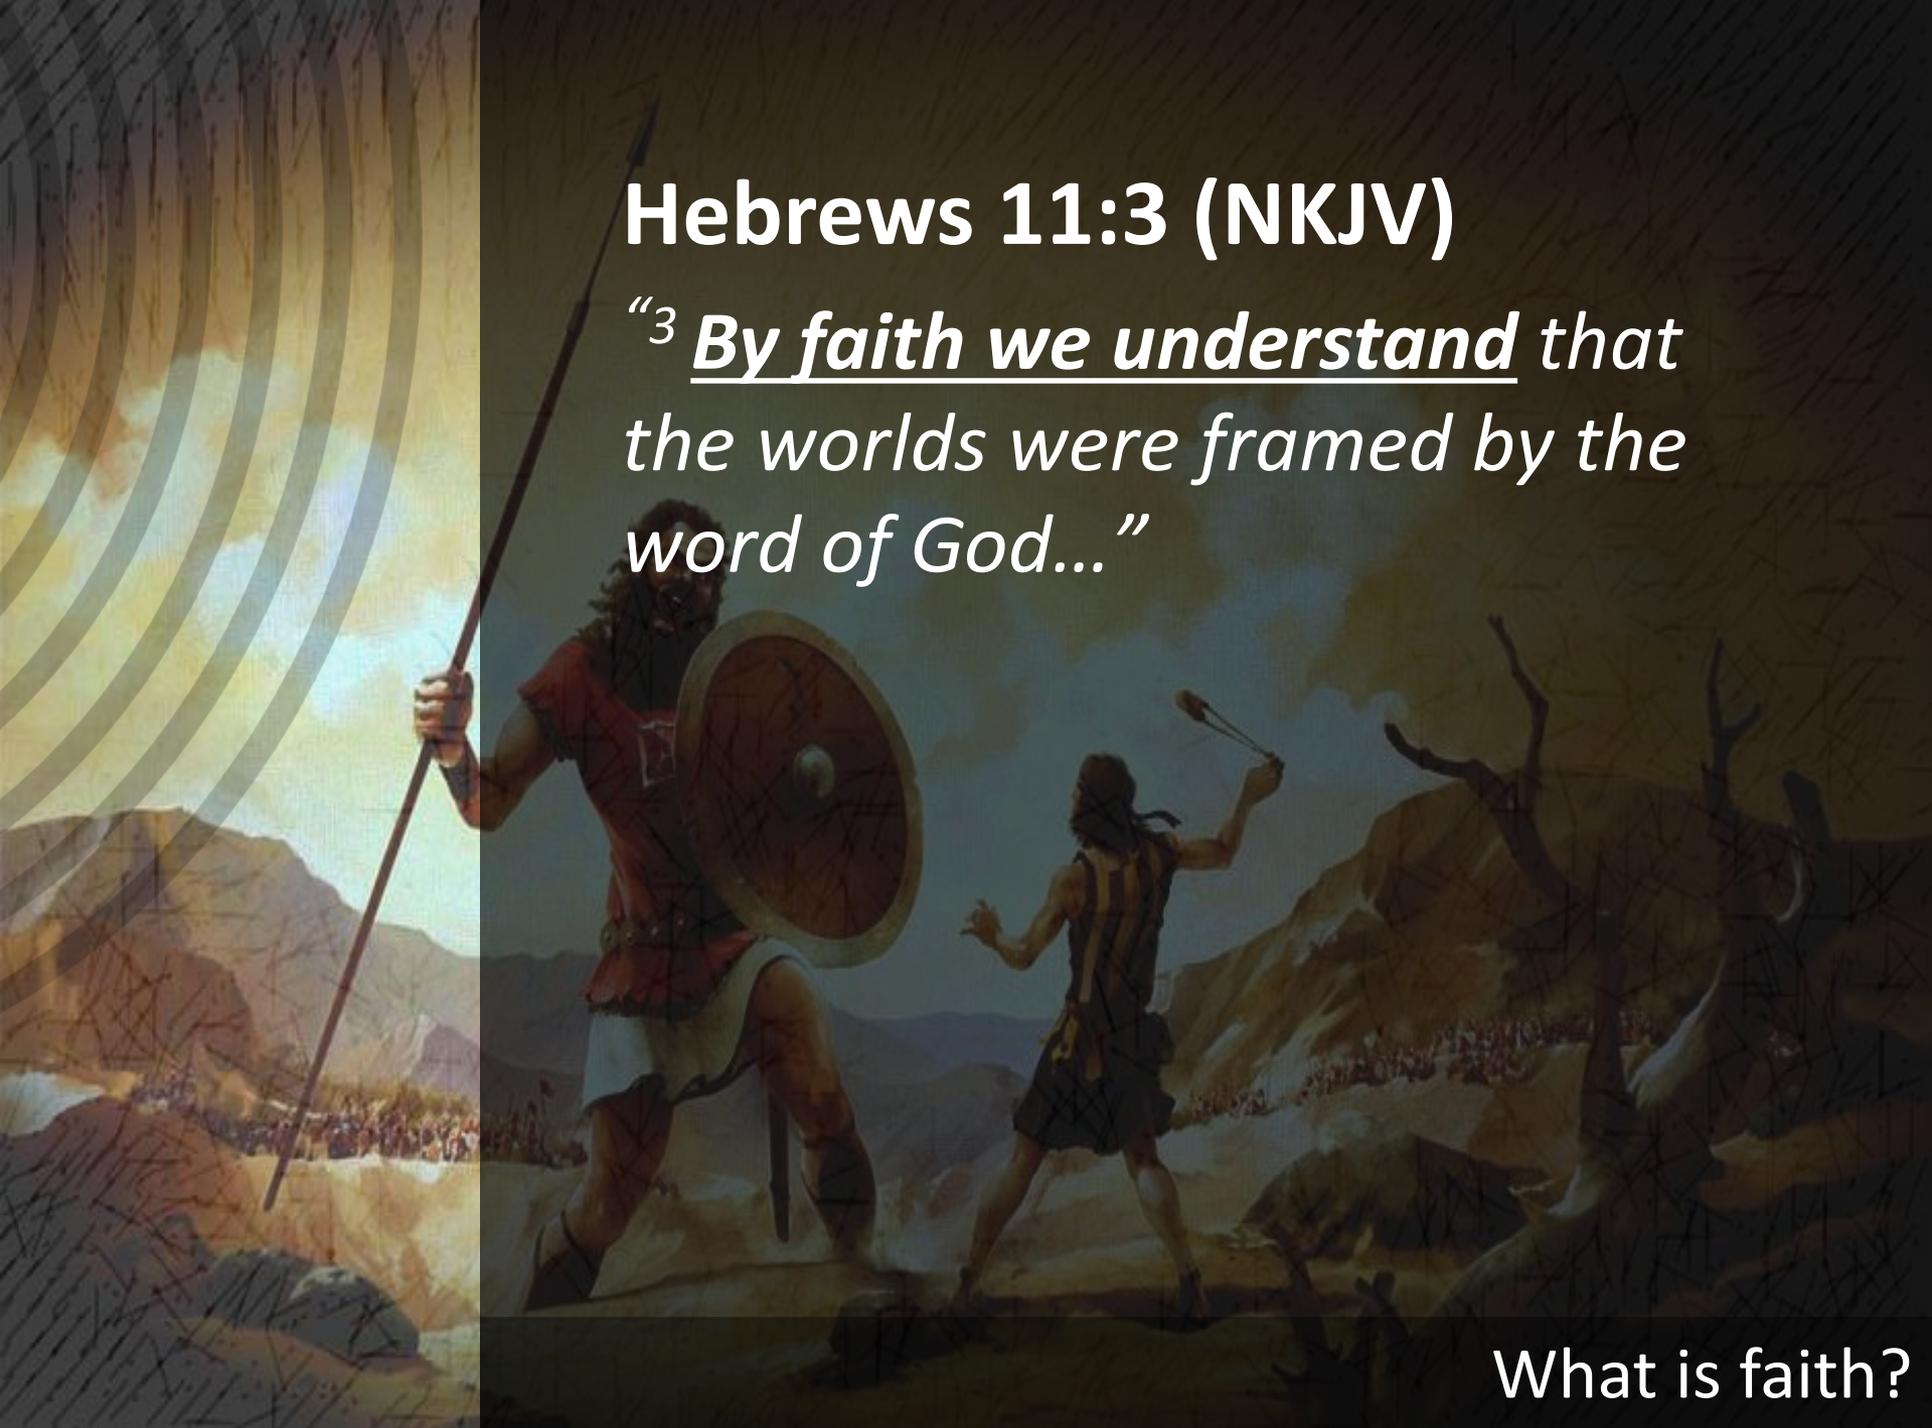

Christ the Healer, F.F. Bosworth:

“When we base faith on our improvement, or are affected by our symptoms or by what we see or feel instead of by the Word of God alone, just to that extent ours is not real faith. To be occupied with what we see or feel is to exactly reverse the condition God lays down for us to follow.”

“³ By faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God...”

In the center and right, there is a scene with a warrior in the foreground, wearing a red tunic and holding a spear and a shield. In the background, another warrior is visible, and the landscape is rocky and hazy.
