(Joh 4:3) he left Judea and departed again for Galilee.

(Joh 4:4) And he had to pass through Samaria.

(Joh 4:5) So he came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

(Joh 4:6) Jacob's well was there; so Jesus, wearied as he was from his journey, was sitting beside the well. It was about the sixth hour.

(Joh 4:7) A woman from Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink."

(Joh 4:8) (For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.)

(Joh 4:9) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a woman of Samaria?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

(Joh 4:10) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

(Joh 4:11) The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw water with, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water?"

(Joh 4:12) Are you greater than our father Jacob? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and his livestock."

(Joh 4:13) Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again,

(Joh 4:14) but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again. The water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

(Joh 4:15) The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I will not be thirsty or have to come here to draw water."

(Joh 4:16) Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

(Joh 4:17) The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband';

(Joh 4:18) for you have had five husbands, and the one you now have is not your husband. What do you say to him?"

(Joh 4:19) The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet.

(Joh 4:20) Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship."

(Joh 4:21) Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father.

(Joh 4:22) You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews.

(Joh 4:23) But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him.

(Joh 4:24) God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

(Joh 4:25) The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming (he who is called Christ). When he comes, he will tell us all things."

(Joh 4:26) Jesus said to her, "I who speak to you am he."

(Joh 4:27) Just then his disciples came back. They marveled that he was talking with a woman, but no one said, "What do you seek?" or, "Why are you talking with her?"

(Joh 4:28) So the woman left her water jar and went away into town and said to the people,

(Joh 4:29) "Come, see a man who told me
all that I ever did. Can this be the Christ?"

(Joh 4:39) Many Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me all that I ever did."

(Joh 4:40) So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed there two days.

(Joh 4:41) And many more believed because of his word.

(Joh 4:42) They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Savior of the world."

Die Samaritans

(Joh 4:4) And he had to pass through Samaria.

(Joh 4:5) So he came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

The Samaritan Woman

(Joh 4:17) The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; (Joh 4:18) for you have had five husbands, and the one you now have is not your husband. What you have said is true."

(Pro 21:19) It is better to live in a desert land than with a quarrelsome and fretful woman.

(Pro 21:9) It is better to live in a corner of the housetop than in a house shared with a quarrelsome wife.

The background is a blurred photograph of a forest. Sunlight filters through the dense canopy of green trees, creating bright, out-of-focus patches of light and shadow. The overall tone is natural and serene, with a focus on the play of light and color in a wooded area.

A blurred background image of a forest with a waterfall. The waterfall is in the center, cascading down a rocky ledge. The surrounding trees are dense and green, with some yellowing leaves visible, suggesting an autumn setting. The overall scene is peaceful and natural.

(Gal 3:27) For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

(Gal 3:28) There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

(Gal 3:29) And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise.

Jesus breaks through 3 barriers

1. The love of Jesus conquers the barriers of race and class

(Joh 4:12) Are you greater than our father Jacob? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and his livestock."

Jesus breaks through 3 barriers

1. The love of Jesus conquers the barriers of race and class
2. Your living testimony conquers arguments

(Joh 4:19) The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet.

(Joh 4:20) Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship."

(Joh 4:21) Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father.

2. Your testimony conquers arguments
3. Your living relationship with Jesus conquers the barriers of dead “religion”
