

2019 light bulbs and revelations

Werner Joubert

(Pro 18:10) The name of the LORD is a strong tower; the righteous man runs into it and is safe.

(Pro 18:11) A rich man's wealth is his strong city, and like a high wall in his imagination.

(Pro 18:12) Before destruction a man's heart is haughty, but humility comes before honor.

(Php 3:8) Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ

(Rom 8:35) Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

(Rom 8:36) As it is written, “For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.”

(Rom 8:37) No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

1) Jesus invites his Children to press into Him
in all circumstances

(Rom 8:26) Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words.

(2Co 1:3) Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, (2Co 1:4) who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

(2Ti 1:6) For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, (2Ti 1:7) for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control.

  - 2) Jesus makes the weak brave

(Mat 16:18) And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

(Col 1:18) And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent.

(Eph 1:22) And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church,

(Eph 1:23) which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

(1Co 12:27) Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.

(1Co 14:26) What then, brothers? When you come together, each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up.

(1Pe 4:10) As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace:

(Eph 4:11) And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers,

(Eph 4:12) to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ,

  - 4) Jesus builds a team not a “star”

(Luk 2:52) And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and man.

(2Pe 3:17) You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, take care that you are not carried away with the error of lawless people and lose your own stability.

(2Pe 3:18) But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity.
Amen.
