

Is He worthy?

Werner Joubert

(Rev 5:1) Then I saw in the right hand of him who was seated on the throne a scroll written within and on the back, sealed with seven seals.

(Rev 5:2) And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?”

(Rev 5:3) And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it,

(Rev 5:4) and I began to weep loudly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.

(Rev 5:5) And one of the elders said to me, “Weep no more; behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered, so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals.”

(Rev 5:6) And between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders I saw a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, with seven horns and with seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

(Rev 5:7) And he went and took the scroll from the right hand of him who was seated on the throne.

(Rev 5:8) And when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each holding a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

(Rev 5:9) And they sang a new song, saying, “Worthy are you to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slain, and by your blood you ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation,

(Rev 5:10) and you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth.”

(Rev 5:11) Then I looked, and I heard around the throne and the living creatures and the elders the voice of many angels, numbering myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands,

(Rev 5:12) saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!”

(Rev 5:13) And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying, “To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!”

(Rev 5:14) And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” and the elders fell down and worshipped.

(Rev 6:1) Now I watched when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, "Come!"

(Rev 6:2) And I looked, and behold, a white horse! And its rider had a bow, and a crown was given to him, and he came out conquering, and to conquer.

(Rev 6:3) When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come!"

(Rev 6:4) And out came another horse, bright red. Its rider was permitted to take peace from the earth, so that people should slay one another, and he was given a great sword.

(Rev 6:5) When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come!" And I looked, and behold, a black horse! And its rider had a pair of scales in his hand.

(Rev 6:6) And I heard what seemed to be a voice in the midst of the four living creatures, saying, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius, and do not harm the oil and wine!"

(Rev 6:7) When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, "Come!"

(Rev 6:8) And I looked, and behold, a pale horse! And its rider's name was Death, and Hades followed him. And they were given authority over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with pestilence and by wild beasts of the earth.

(Rev 6:9) When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the witness they had borne.

(Rev 6:10) They cried out with a loud voice, “O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long before you will judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?”

(Rev 6:11) Then they were each given a white robe and told to rest a little longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brothers should be complete, who were to be killed as they themselves had been.

(Rev 6:12) When he opened the sixth seal, I looked, and behold, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth, the full moon became like blood (Rev 6:13) and the stars of the sky fell to the earth as the fig tree sheds its winter fruit when shaken by a gale.

(Rev 6:14) The sky vanished like a scroll that is being rolled up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

(Rev 6:15) Then the kings of the earth and the great ones and the generals and the rich and the powerful, and everyone, slave and free, hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains,

(Rev 6:16) calling to the mountains and rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of him who is seated on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, (Rev 6:17) for the great day of their wrath has come, and who can stand?”

(Rev 7:1) After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, that no wind might blow on earth or sea or against any tree.

(Rev 7:2) Then I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, with the seal of the living God, and he called with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm earth and sea,

(Rev 7:3) saying, “Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads.”
