

Rest for the weary: Be still and know that He is God

(Psalm 46:10a) “Be still, and know that I am God...”

(2 Kings 18:5-6) He trusted in the Lord , the God of Israel, so that there was none like him among all the kings of Judah after him, nor among those who were before him. For he held fast to the Lord . He did not depart from following him, but kept the commandments that the Lord commanded Moses.

(2 Kings 18:19) And the Rabshakeh said to them, “Say to Hezekiah, ‘Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: On what do you rest this trust of yours?’”

(2 Kings 18:35) Who among all the gods of the lands have delivered their lands out of my hand, that the Lord should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?””

A dramatic landscape of a deep canyon with a river winding through the bottom, under a hazy sky. The text is overlaid on the upper half of the image.

(2 Kings 19:1-2) As soon as King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth and went into the house of the Lord . And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz.

(2 Kings 19:14-15) Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the Lord and spread it before the Lord . And Hezekiah prayed before the Lord and said: “O Lord , the God of Israel, enthroned above the cherubim, you are the God, you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth. Incline your ear, O Lord , and hear;

(2 Kings 19:20) Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, “Thus says the Lord , the God of Israel: Your prayer to me about Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard.”

(2 Kings 19:35) And that night the angel of the Lord went out and struck down 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians. And when people arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies.

(Psalm 46:1-4) God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear though the earth gives way, though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble at its swelling. There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High.

(Psalm 46:5-8) God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved; God will help her when morning dawns. The nations rage, the kingdoms totter; he utters his voice, the earth melts. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress. Come, behold the works of the Lord, how he has brought desolations on the earth.

(Psalm 46:9-11) He makes wars cease to the end of the earth; he breaks the bow and shatters the spear; he burns the chariots with fire. “Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!” The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress.

(Rom 8:31-32) What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things?
