in pursuit of greatness

Luke 9 (NKJV) 46 Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

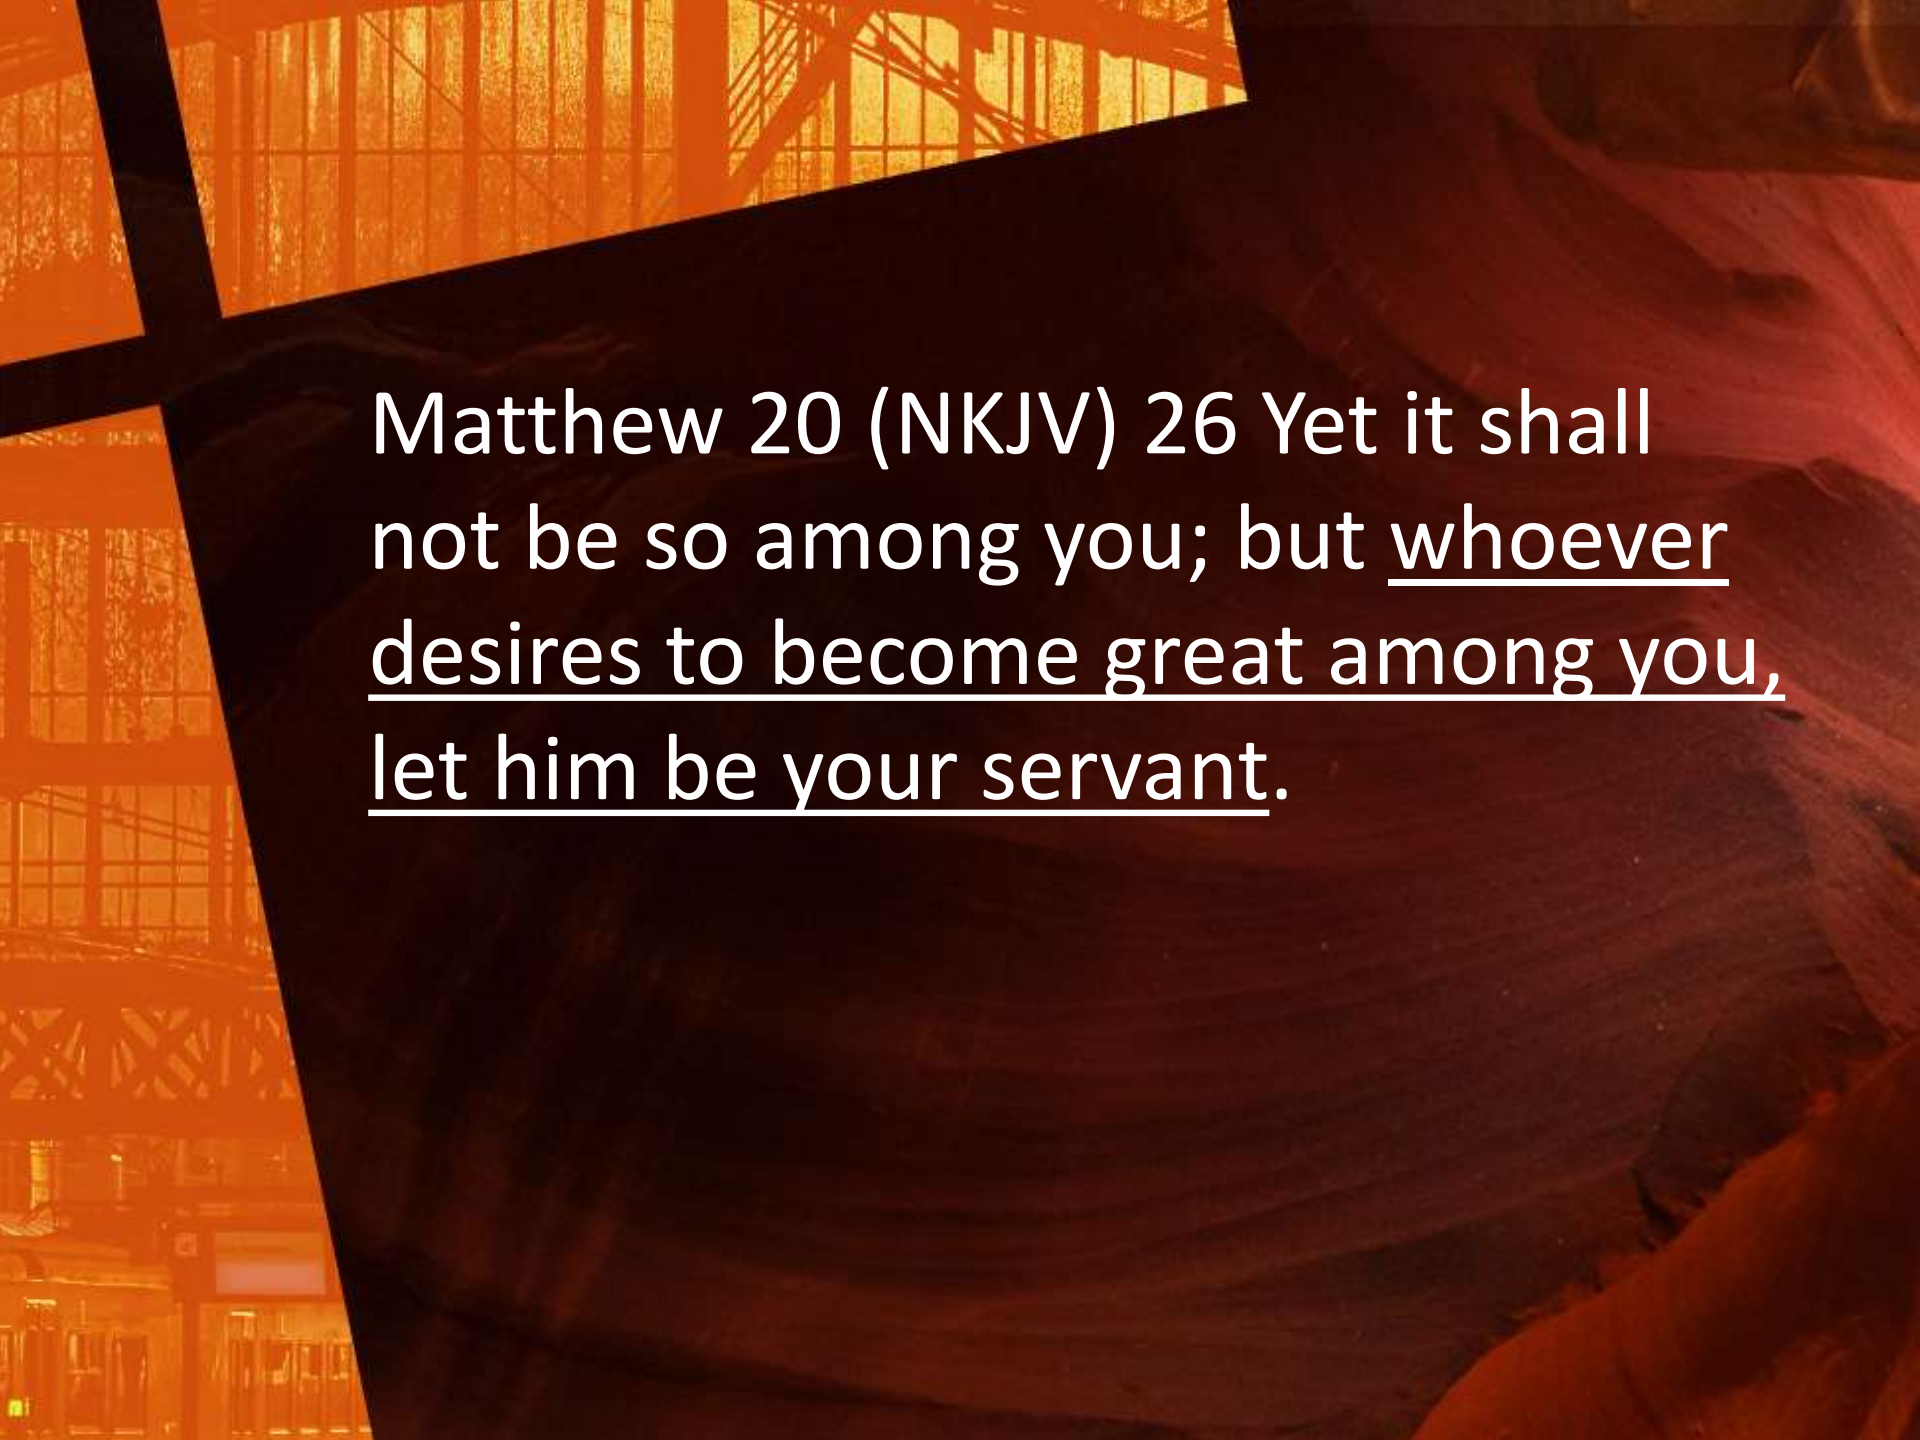

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a little child and set him by Him, 48 and said to them, “Whoever receives this little child in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me. For he who is least among you all will be great.”

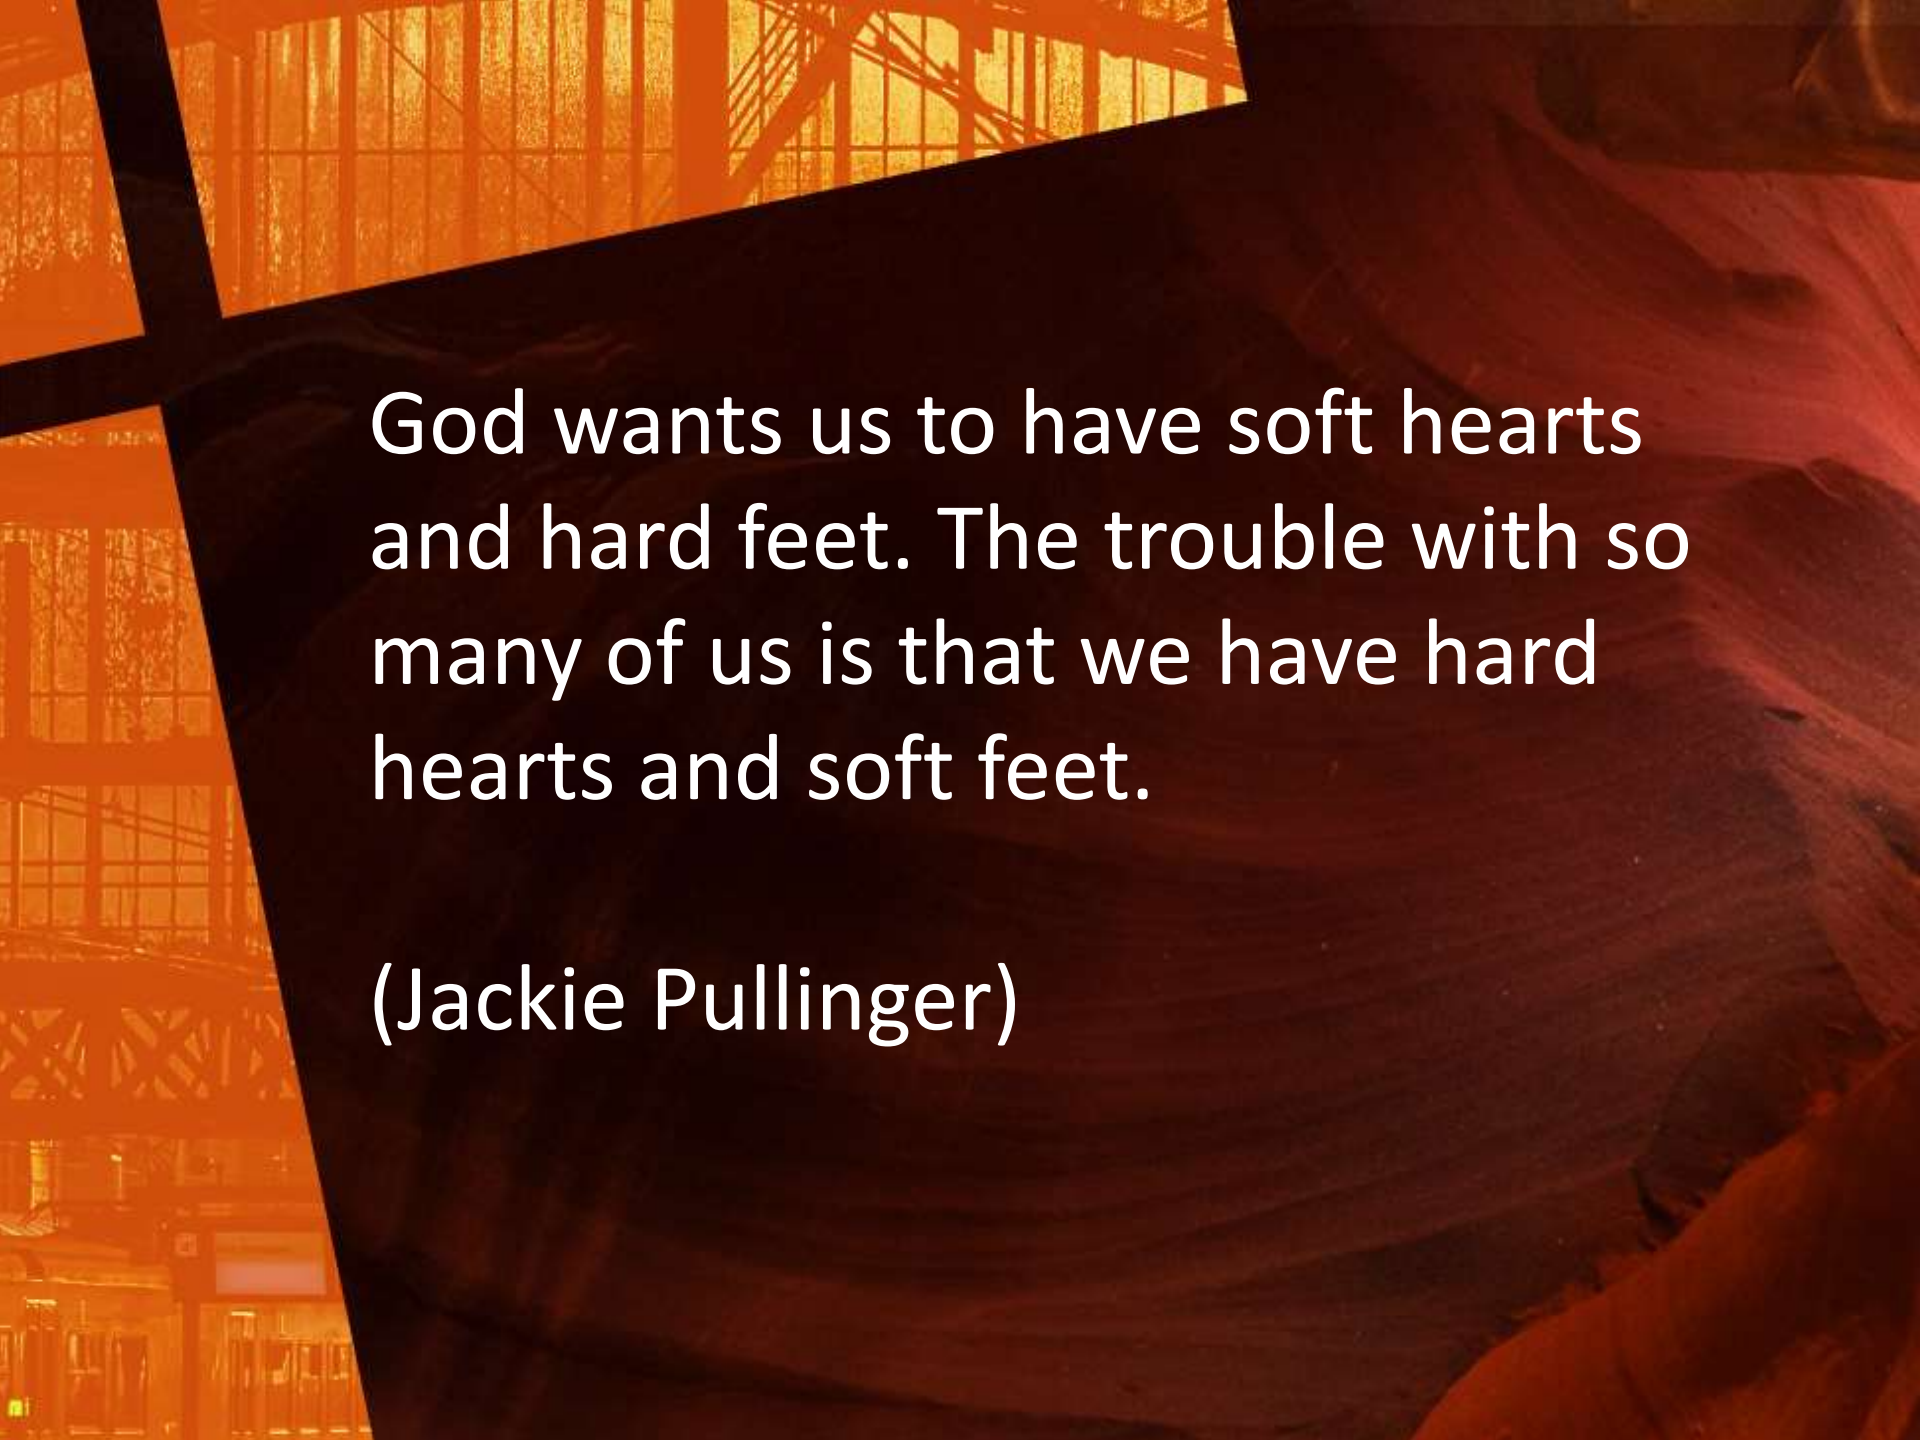

2 Timothy 2 (NKJV) 20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay, some for honor and some for dishonor.

21 Therefore if anyone cleanses himself from the latter, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified and useful for the Master, prepared for every good work.

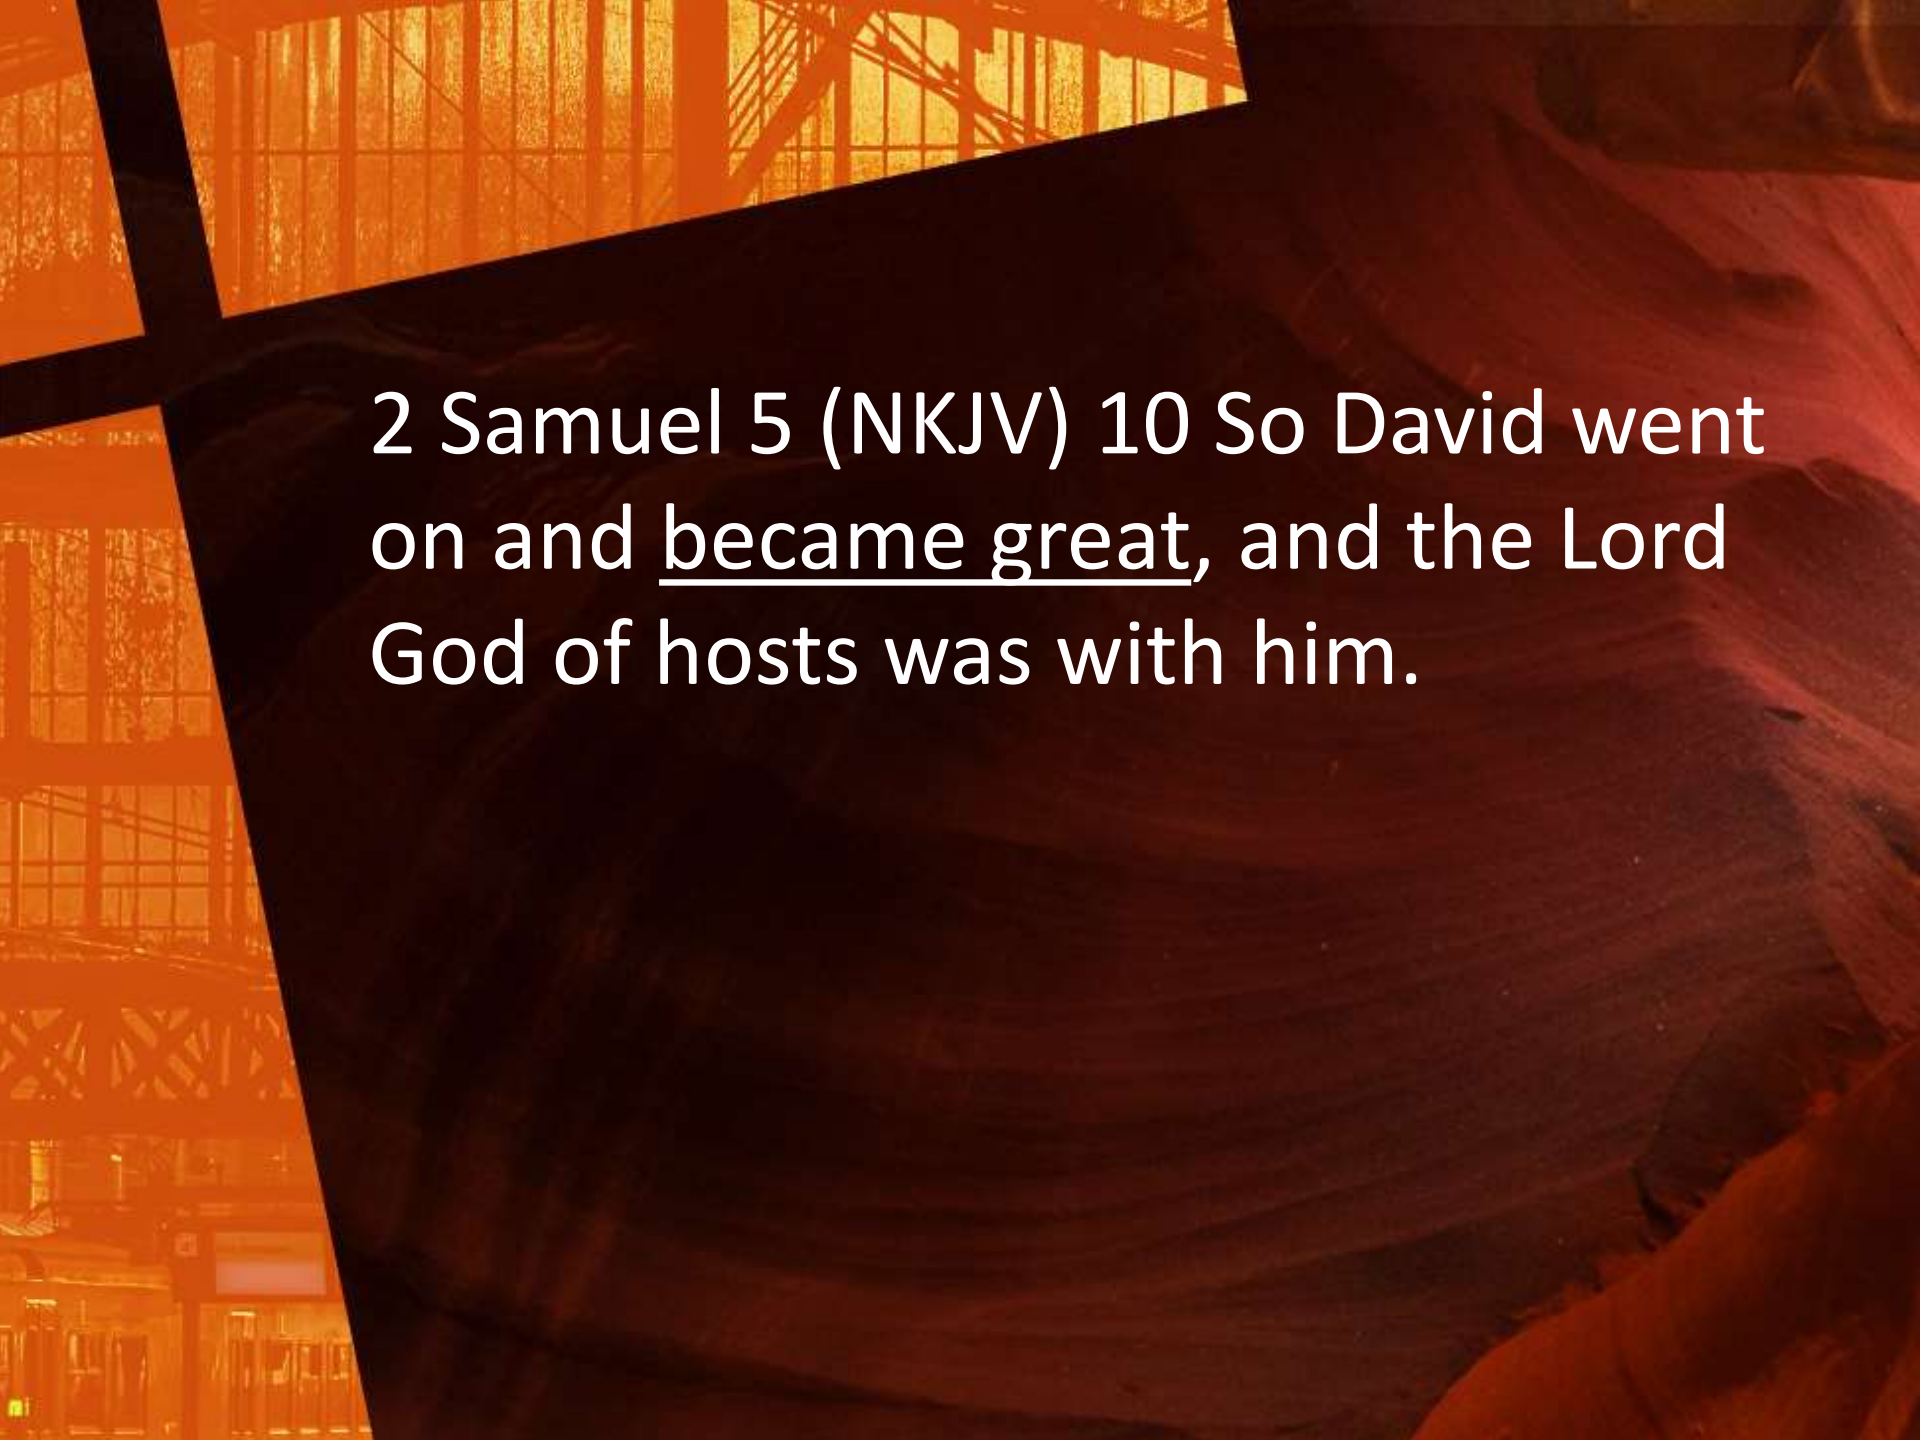

Matthew 20 (NKJV) 26 Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant.

God wants us to have soft hearts and hard feet. The trouble with so many of us is that we have hard hearts and soft feet.

2 Samuel 5 (NKJV) 10 So David went on and became great, and the Lord God of hosts was with him.
