Gen 4:1-5

Adam knew his wife Eve intimately, and she conceived and gave birth to Cain. She said, "I have had a male child with the LORD's help." Then she also gave birth to his brother Abel. Now Abel became a shepherd of a flock, but Cain cultivated the land. In the course of time Cain presented some of the land's produce as an offering to the LORD. And Abel also presented [an offering]--some of the firstborn of his flock and their fat portions. The LORD had regard for Abel and his offering, but He did not have regard for Cain and his offering. Cain was furious, and he was downcast.

A photograph of a railway track in a deep cut, with concrete walls and overhead power lines. The tracks are made of steel rails on wooden sleepers, and the cut is lined with concrete walls. Blue overhead power lines run along the top of the cut. The scene is captured from a high angle, looking down the length of the track.
