Critical Mass

Jaco van Rooyen

Don't be misled—you cannot mock the justice of God. You will always harvest what you plant. ⁸ Those who live only to satisfy their own sinful nature will harvest decay and death from that sinful nature. But those who live to please the Spirit will harvest everlasting life from the Spirit.

Gal 6:7-9 NLT

⁹ So let's not get tired of doing what is good.
At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up.

Gal 6:7-9 NLT

The size that something needs to reach before a particular change, event or development can happen.

A dark, atmospheric photograph of a river flowing through a forest. The river is the central focus, with water reflecting light in a way that gives it a slightly blue-green hue. The banks are covered in dense, dark foliage and trees. On the left side, a large plume of white steam or smoke rises from the water, partially obscuring the background. The overall mood is mysterious and somewhat somber. The text "1. Every act contribute." is overlaid in the center of the image in a white, sans-serif font.

1. Every act contribute.

2. We cannot determine the real value of every act.

3. There is a point of no return.

⁵⁸ So, my dear brothers and sisters, be strong and immovable. Always work enthusiastically for the Lord, for you know that nothing you do for the Lord is ever useless.

1 Cor 15:58 NLT
