Generational Responsibilities

Jaco van Rooyen

It's human nature to default to the path of least resistance unless you make purposeful decisions to do what's best rather than what's most convenient.

For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep, was buried with his fathers...

Acts 13:36 NKJV

1. Every generation is responsible to intercede for the sins of that generation.

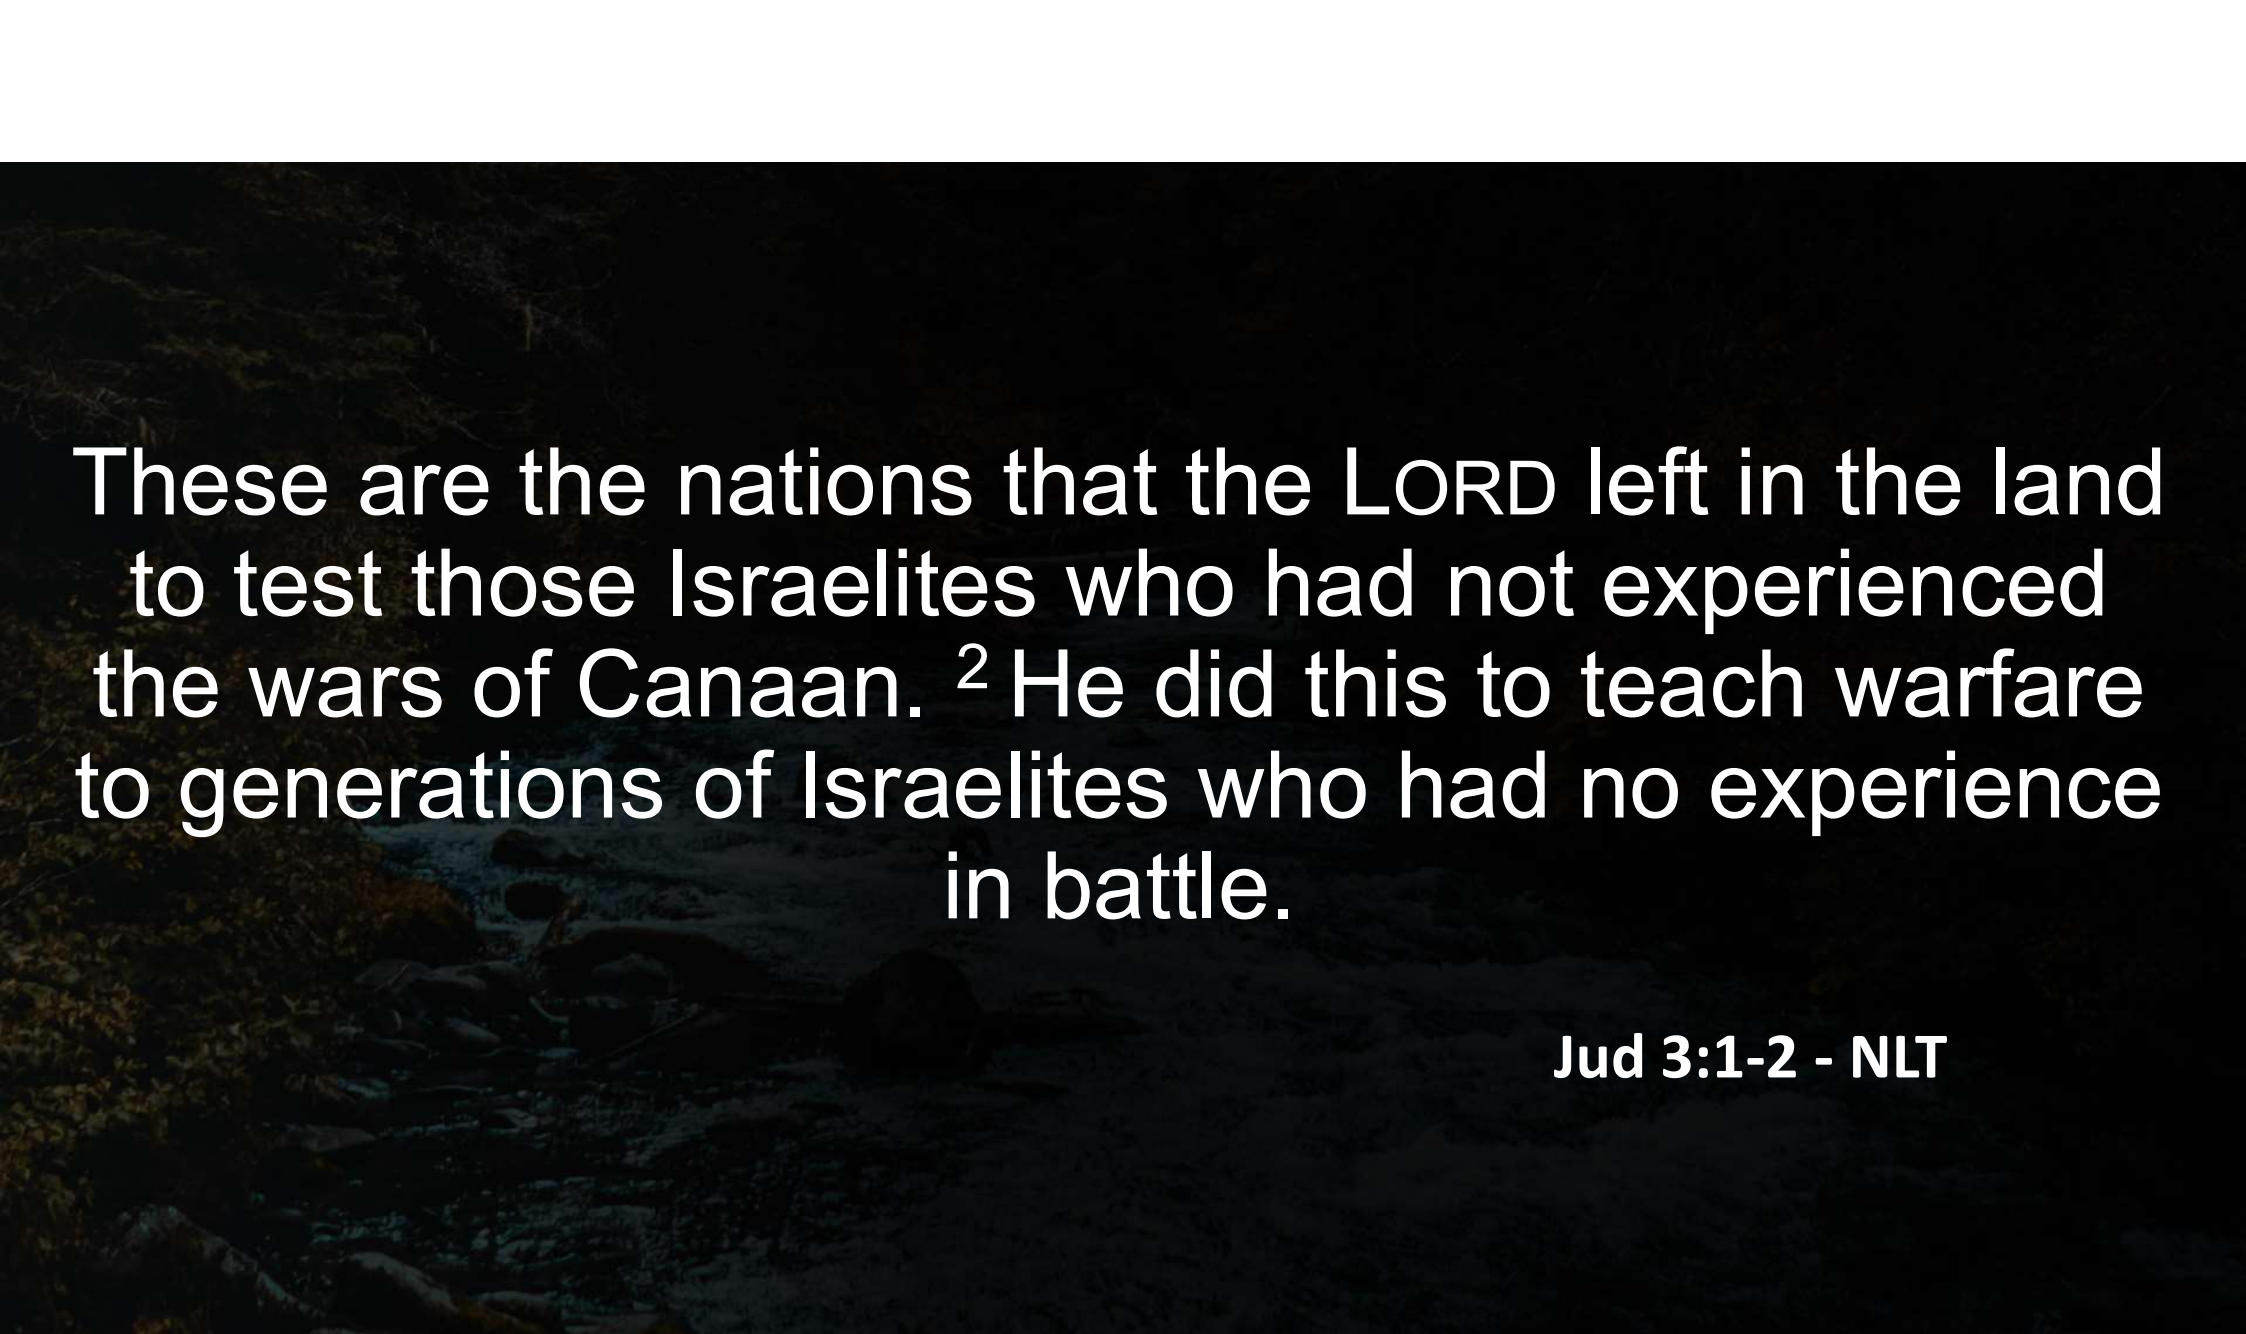

¹⁷ “Should I hide my plan from Abraham?” the LORD asked. ¹⁸ “For Abraham will certainly become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed through him.

Gen 18:17-18 NLT

A dark, atmospheric landscape featuring a river or stream flowing through a dense forest. On the left side, thick white steam or smoke rises from the ground, partially obscuring the trees. The water in the river is dark and turbulent, with some lighter patches visible. The surrounding forest is dense with dark green foliage, and the overall scene is dimly lit, creating a mysterious and somewhat ominous mood.

2. Every generation has to slay their own giants.

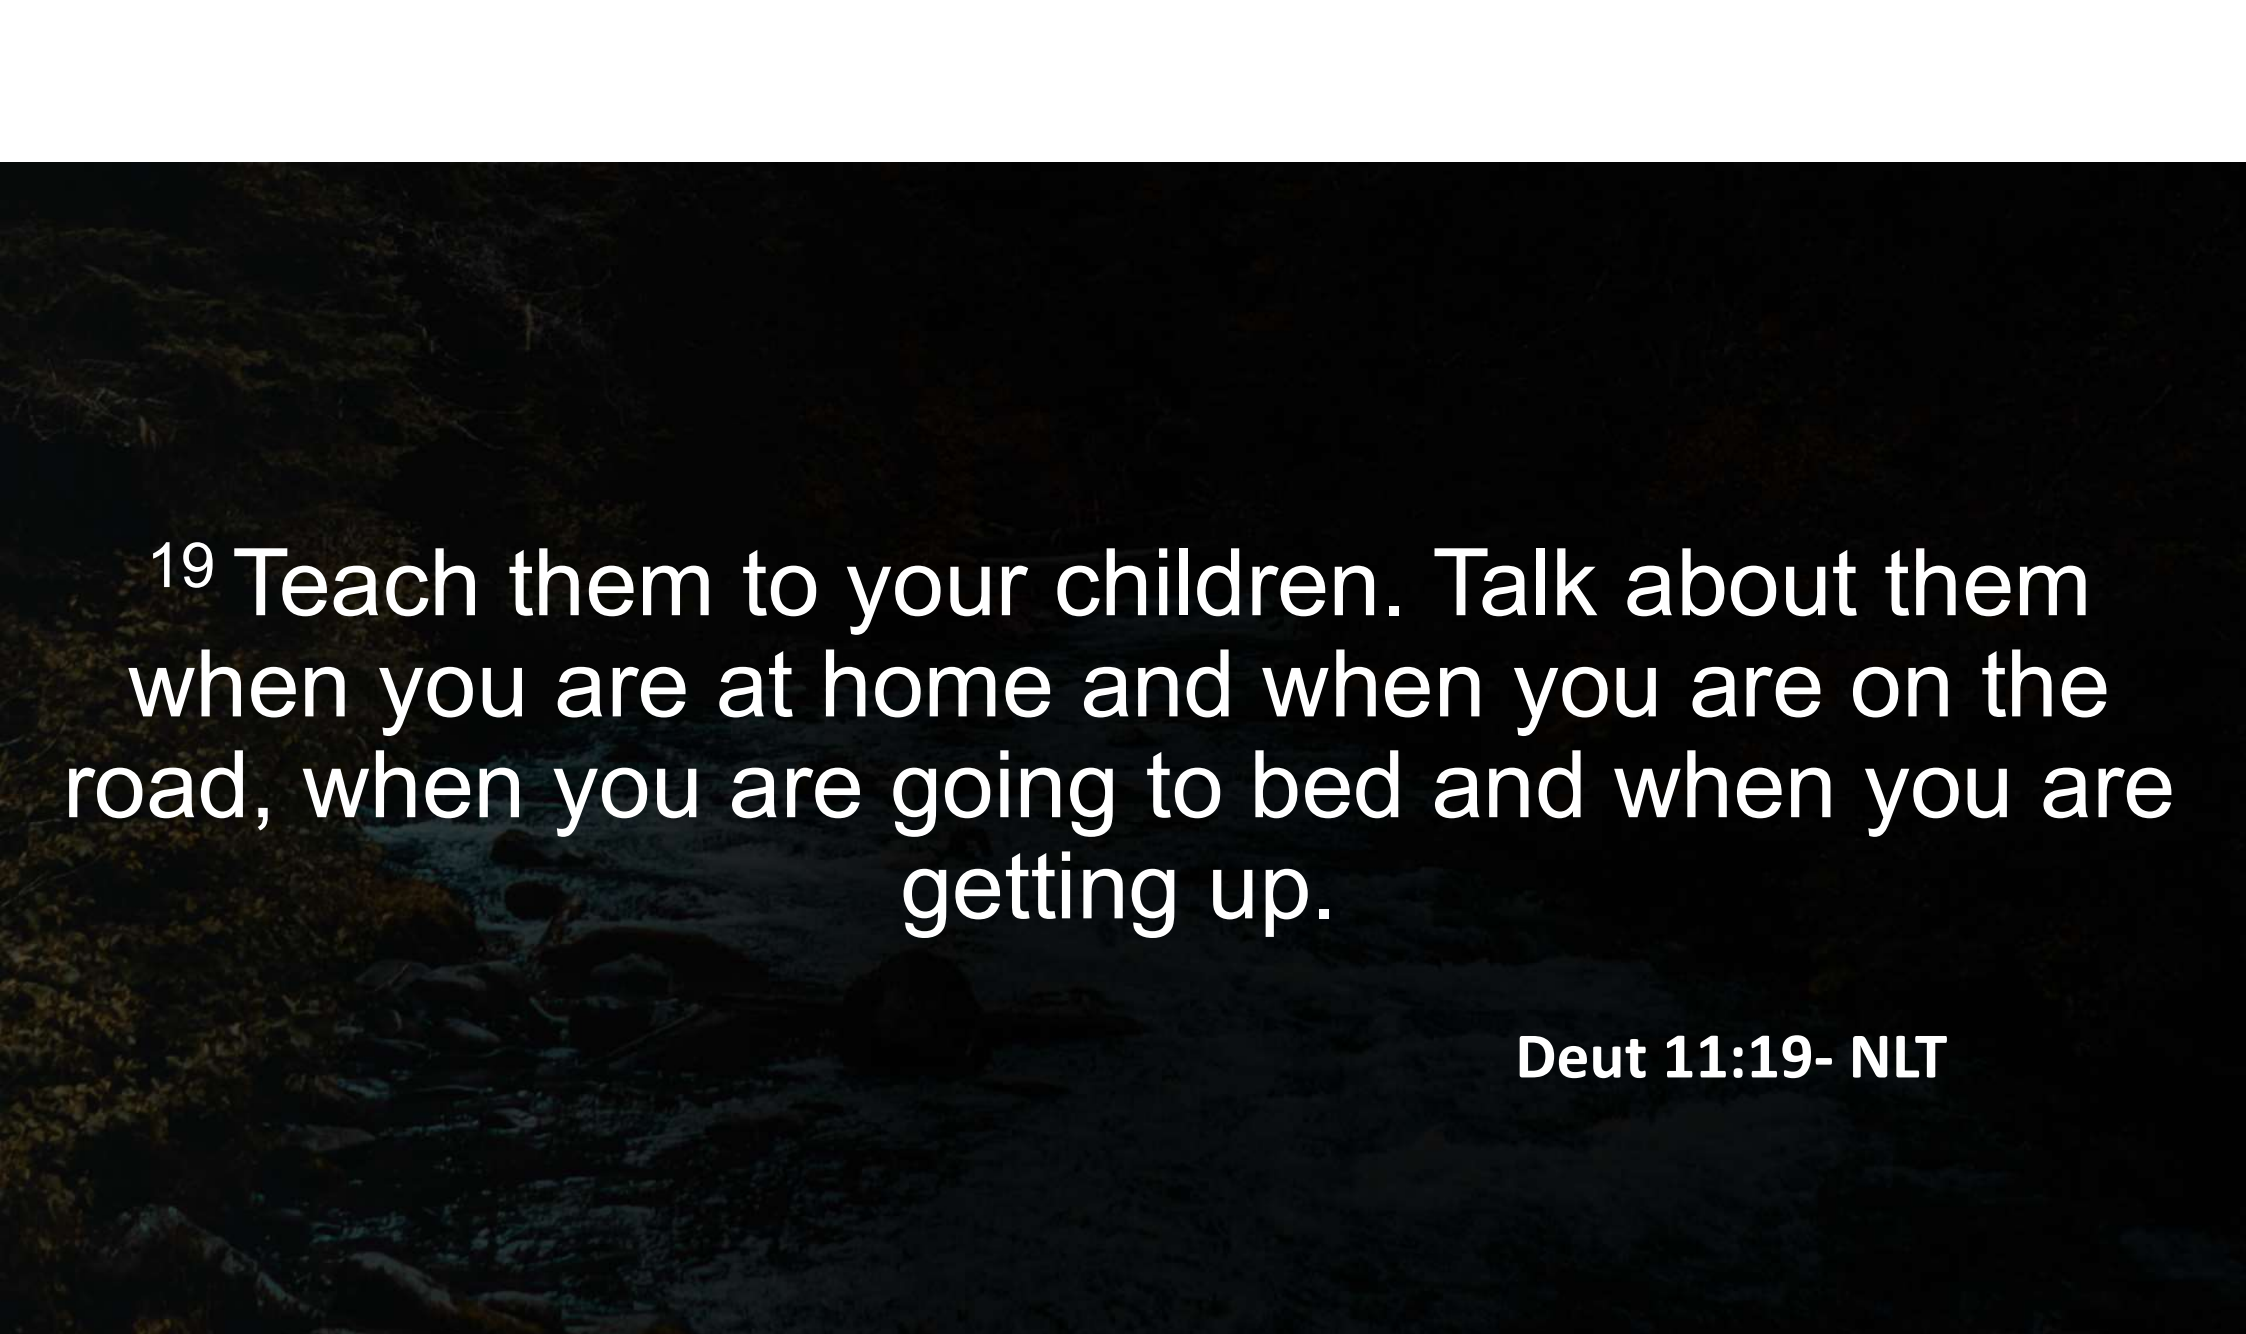

These are the nations that the LORD left in the land to test those Israelites who had not experienced the wars of Canaan. ² He did this to teach warfare to generations of Israelites who had no experience in battle.

Jud 3:1-2 - NLT

3. Every generation has to teach the next generation.

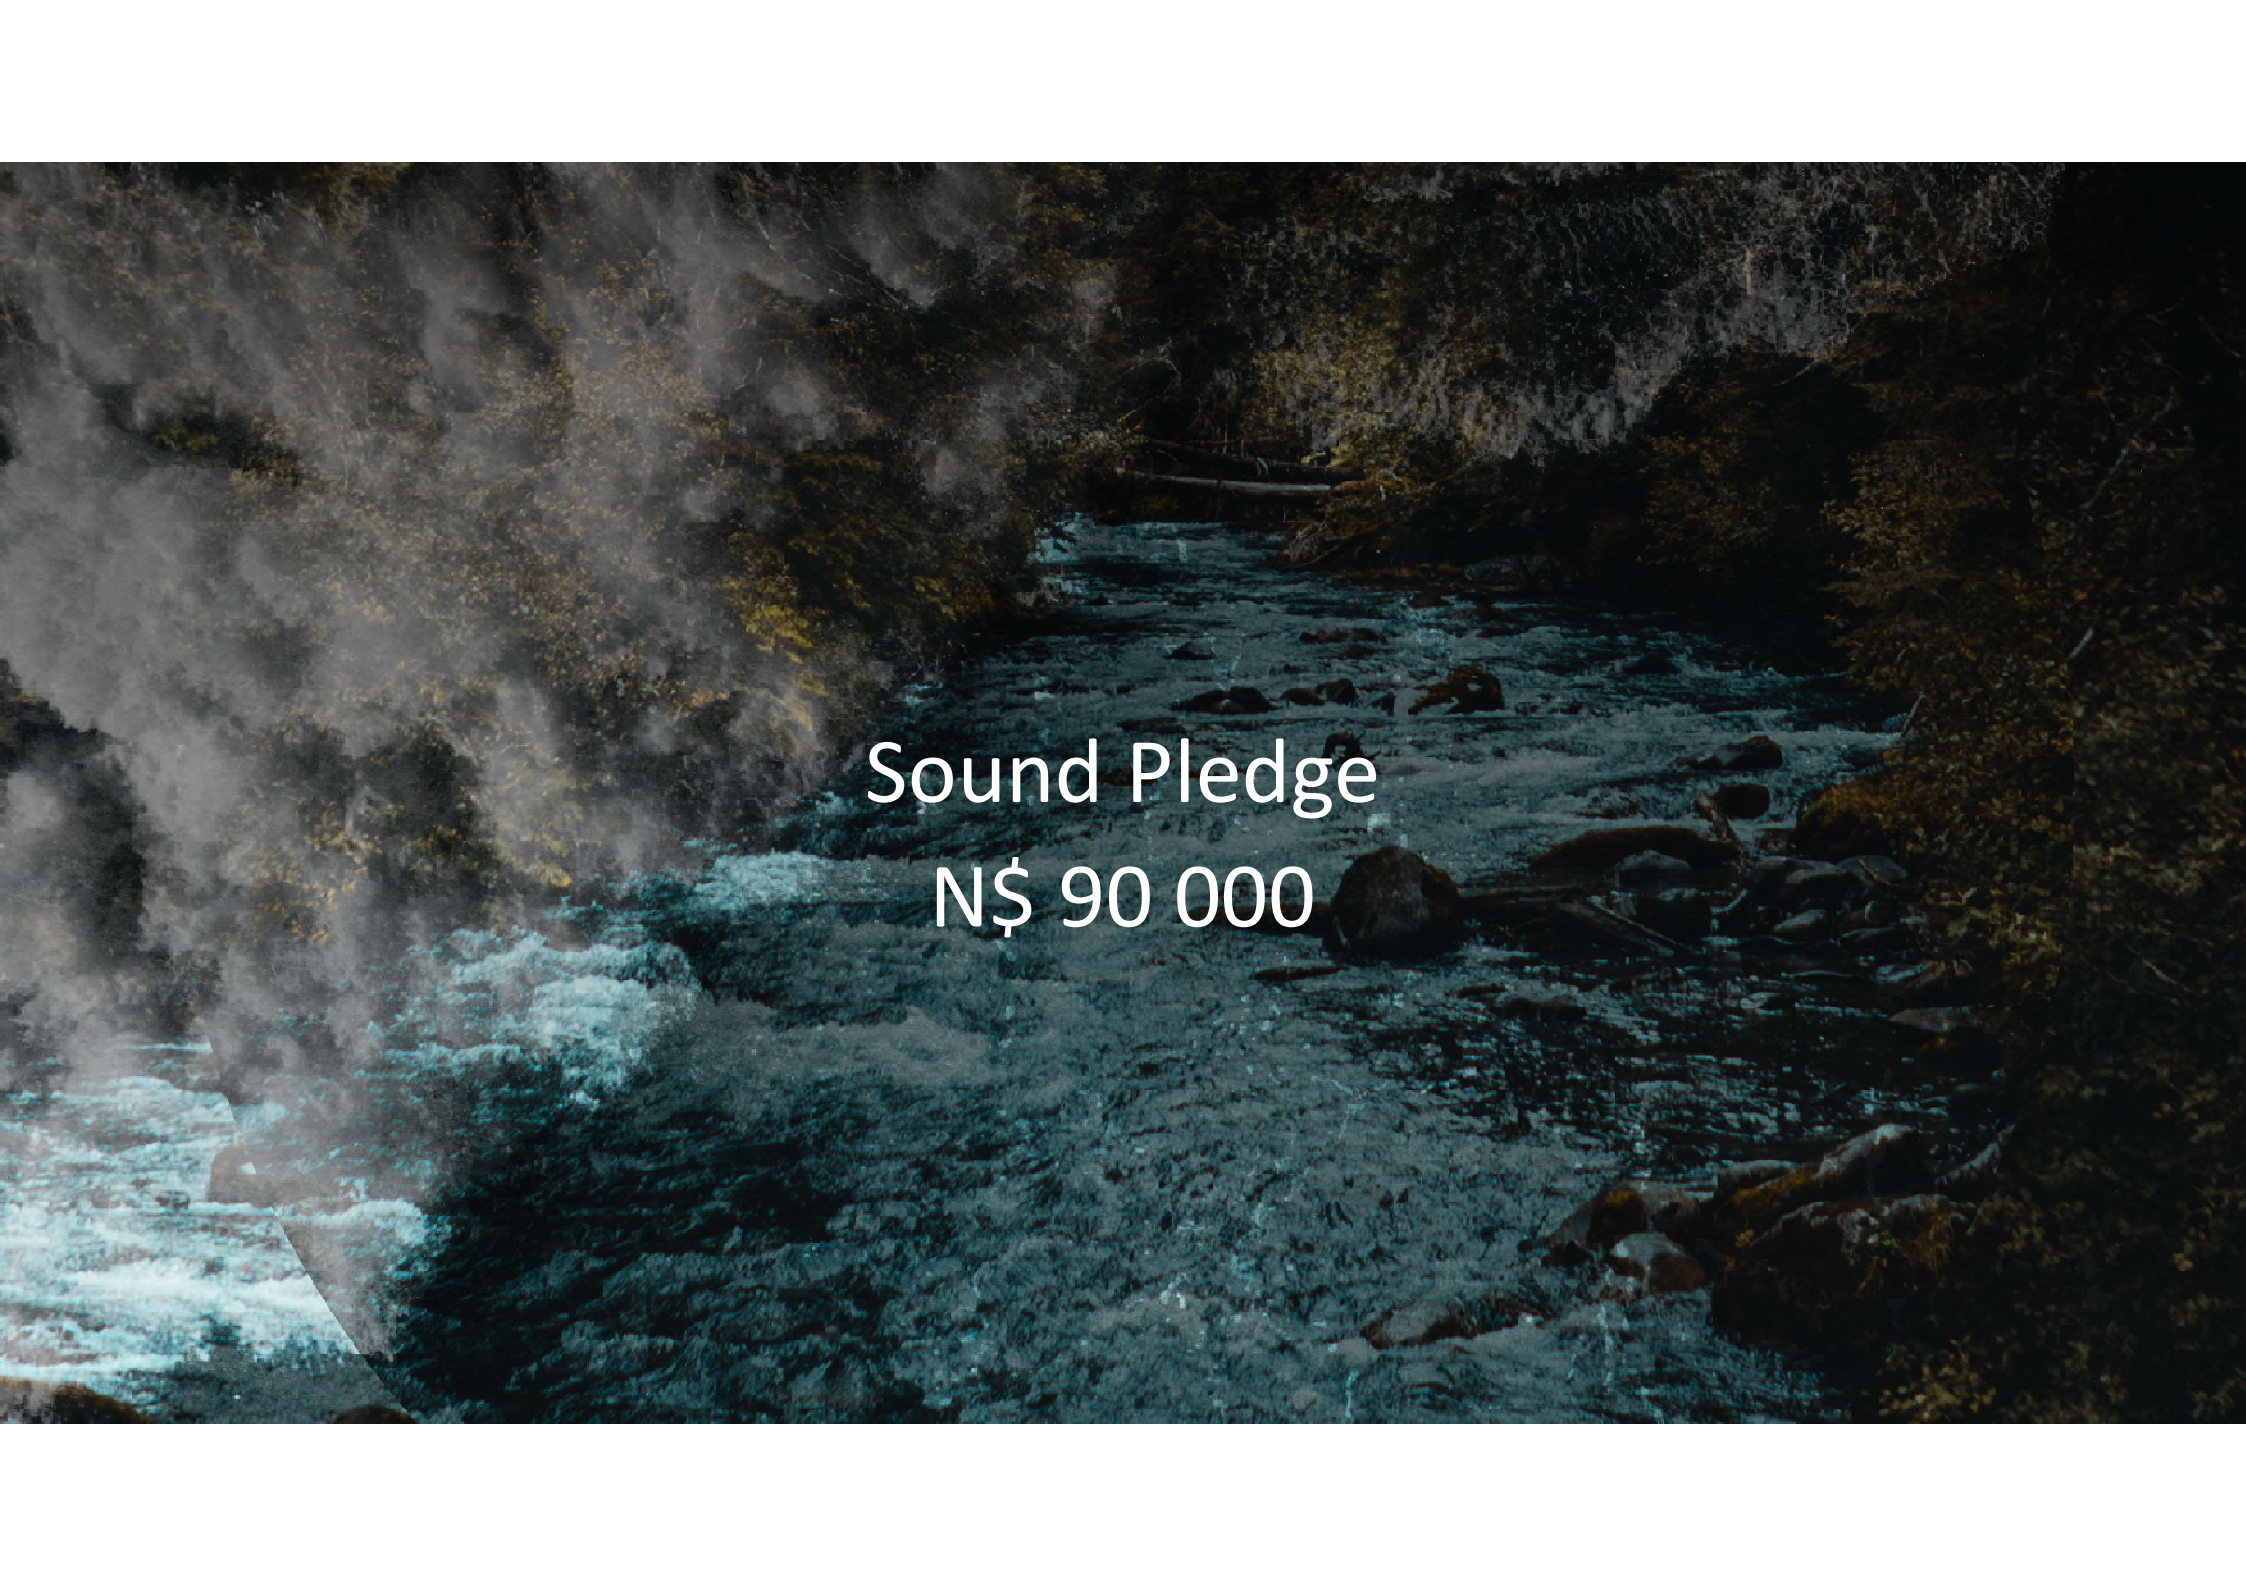

¹⁹ Teach them to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up.

Deut 11:19- NLT

4. Every generation has to leave something behind for the next generation.

A dark, atmospheric photograph of a river flowing through a forest. The river is the central focus, with water reflecting light in a way that gives it a slightly blue-green hue. The banks are covered in dense, dark foliage and trees. On the left side, a large plume of white steam or smoke rises from the ground, partially obscuring the background. The overall mood is mysterious and somewhat somber.
