Law and Prophets

Sermon on the Mount: Matthew 5 I Christ Came to Fulfill the Law I 17 "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. 18 For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. 19 Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

(MSG) I 17-18 "Don't suppose for a minute that I have come to demolish the Scriptures—either God's Law or the Prophets. I'm not here to demolish but to complete. I am going to put it all together, pull it all together in a vast panorama. God's Law is more real and lasting than the stars in the sky and the ground at your feet. Long after stars burn out and earth wears out, God's Law will be alive and working.

19-20 "Trivialize even the smallest item in God's Law and you will only have trivialized yourself. But take it seriously, show the way for others, and you will find honor in the kingdom. Unless you do far better than the Pharisees in the matters of right living, you won't know the first thing about entering the kingdom.

The glory of Jesus Christ shines more clearly when we see him in his proper relation to the Old Testament. He has a magnificent relation to all that was written. It is not surprising that this is the case, because he is called the Word of God incarnate (John 1:14). Would not the Word of God incarnate be the sum and consummation of the word of God written? ## 2.Breaking open the Word I Matthew 5:17-20:

2.1 Verses 17-18:

"Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. 18 For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished.

2.1.1 What was the Law and the Prophets?

- ✓ Two major divisions of the Old Testament. The Law, or Law of Moses, consists of the first five books of the Old Testament, known as the Torah in Hebrew. The Prophets consists of several books grouped into certain arrangement.
- ✓ The same Law is sometimes called "Mosaic" because it was given through Moses, and it is also referred to as the "Old Covenant," because it is part of God's promise to Abraham and his descendants.

✓ When Moses and the people arrived at Mount Sinai, God said, "Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine, you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation" (Exodus 19:5–6).

✓ The first mention of the Law to the nation was as a covenant—a legal agreement between God and the people He chose. The Israelites were required to obey it fully if they were to receive its benefits.

✓ God began His introduction to the Law with the Ten Commandments, but the entire Law encompasses 613 commandments, as detailed in the rest of the books of Moses.
 Jesus summarized the Law as having two emphases: love for God and love for neighbours (Matthew 22:37–39).

✓ In Galatians 3:10 PAUL says, "All who rely on observing the law are under a curse, for it is written: 'Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law.'"

- ✓ In Galatians 3:19, "What, then, was the purpose of the law? It was added because of transgressions until the Seed to whom the promise referred had come." And in verse 24: "The law was put in charge to lead us to Christ that we might be justified by faith." The Law pointed out our sinfulness, proved our inability to keep our end of the covenant, made us prisoners in our guilt, and showed our need of a Savior.
- ✓ Like the LAW, the PROPHETS are countless prophecies and pointers

  ABOUT THE MESSAIAH that points us towards Jesus Christ who came to fulfil.

2.1.1 Why fulfil it?

17 "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them.

He is the Only One that can do it, ever!

Galatians 3:23-25 (ESV) Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. 24 So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. 25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian,...

Matthew 5:18 For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished.

In fulfilment He also shows us the magnificence and importance of God's Word - He states the following:

- a. Everlasting effect of the Word
- b. Word was written with intent
  - Every 'jot and tittle'
- c. It carries authority and has been established
- d. Word is faithful and trustworthy 'everything will be accomplished'

Isaiah 55:10-11 (ESV)

"For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, 11 so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

SO HE IS CLEARLY COMMITED TO THE SCRIPTURES and US

Romans 10:4 (ESV) For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

(NIV) 4 Christ is the culmination of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.

Galatians 2:16 (ESV) ... yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified.

2.2 Verse 19:

19 Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

SIMPLY: If you miss one, miss all. Can't change. JESUS was the FULFILMENT

2.3 Verse 20:

20 For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Who of us can be more righteous? Jesus is crafty here, I think ©
