When you get married ministry does not stop, in actual fact it is supposed to be strengthened by spouse being added on.

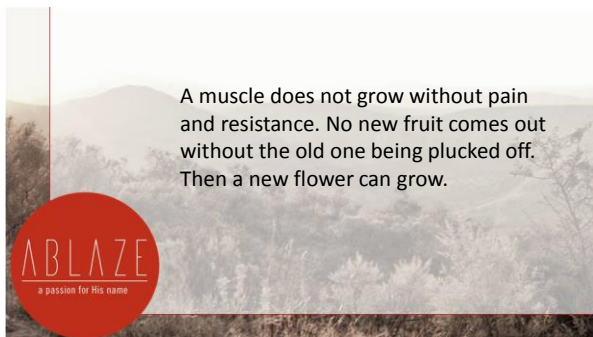

When children arrive ministry does not stop but you and others through you are enriched by the blessing of children and the opportunity for a village to bring up your kids within the family of God.

Jewish males in first year of marriage

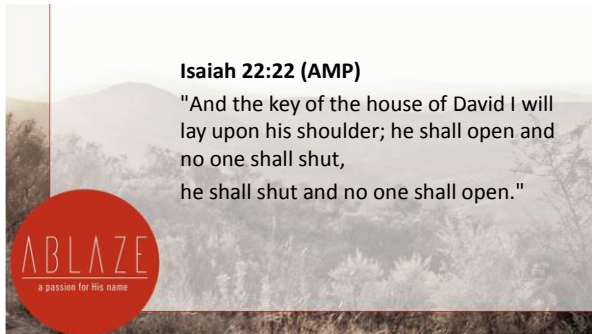

We only really grow when we step out the boat and allow God to grow us through challenges and discomfort. Welcome to Godly covenant marriage!!!

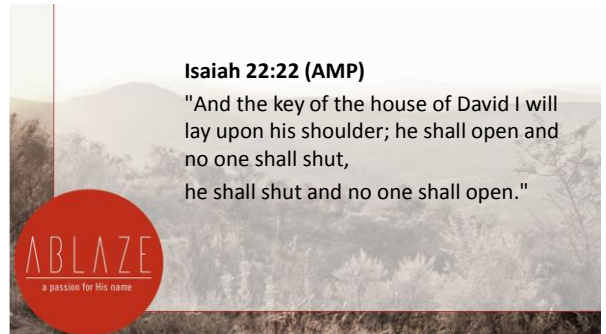

A muscle does not grow without pain and resistance. No new fruit comes out without the old one being plucked off. Then a new flower can grow.

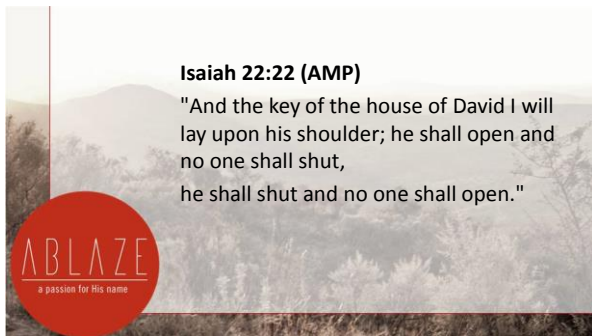

It is in wrestling with God like Jacob that we grow in character and Godly stature and find our identity.
