Identity

A wide-angle photograph of a mountainous landscape. In the foreground, a dirt path leads up a grassy hill. Three hikers are visible on the path, moving away from the viewer. The middle ground shows rolling green hills. In the background, a large, rugged mountain with sharp peaks rises against a cloudy sky. The overall tone is somber and contemplative.

“The reason why many are still troubled, still seeking, still making little forward progress is because they haven't yet come to the end of themselves. We're still trying to give orders, and interfering with God's work within us.”

AW Tozer.

Luke 9:18-20 (ESV)

¹⁸ Now it happened that as He was praying alone, the disciples were with Him. And He asked them, “Who do the crowds say that I am?” ¹⁹ And they answered, “John the Baptist. But others say, Elijah, and others, that one of the prophets of old has risen.” ²⁰ Then he said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” And Peter answered, “The Christ of God.”
